

Wartburg College Artist Series presents

Neil Berg's 100 Years of Broadway: Five of The Great White Way's finest voices, backed by an all-star New York City band, will recreate 50 of the greatest characters in Broadway history.
Friday, Sept. 18, 7:30 p.m.

The Church Basement Ladies: In a rural Minnesota church basement kitchen, women churn out side-splitting life lessons in this home-cooked masterpiece beloved by audiences.
Thursday, Jan. 21, 7:30 p.m.

America Amerique: From the barren potato fields of Ireland, the shtetls of Central and Eastern Europe, and present-day Mexico, new Americans flocked to Midwestern farms and city tenements, and helped build the nation. | Tuesday, Feb. 23, 7:30 p.m.

The
Gizmo
Guys

The Gizmo Guys: This lightning-speed juggling duo will take your breath away with a winning combination of skill and humor that leaves audiences of all ages wondering, "How did they do that?!"
Thursday, March 18, 7:30 p.m.

Reserve your seat. Series tickets go on sale July 6-17 prior to individual event tickets. For more information, visit the information desk in the Saemann Student Center, Wartburg College, 100 Wartburg Blvd., Waverly.

Go online July 6 to order tickets at www.wartburg.edu/artist
800-772-2085, ext. 8691, or 319-352-8691